On Saturday is Bongo Ball Mania our on the Quad (middle of campus). This is a new activity for our campus but a lot of fun! It is like playing laser tag or paint ball with nerf guns instead. Games consist of 5 x 5 and even if you are not playing you can come over and watch. There will be hot chocolate provided!

There is still PLENTY of room to sign up your team of 5 today or tomorrow on the sign up sheet in Janzow across from the mailboxes. If you don't have a team of 5, just show up and we can connect you with other to play.

If you have sign up already, since there are so many spots……sign up for another and get a longer game going!
