What to bring

Each camper must provide his own equipment including cleats, helmet, mouthpiece, football pants, and shoulder pads. Coaches need to bring footballs and equipment kits.

Registration

Register online at cune.edu/SportsCamps.com or fill out the form below. Deadline is July 1. Please call to ensure spots are available if after deadline.

Camp has two divisions, a Varsity group and a JV group. If you bring enough players to have two groups, we want to get them all as many reps as possible during the scrimmages.

Coaches: please register your team as soon as possible so that Concordia can send you a team packet.

Camp fees

Cost: $60 per player

Cost of camp includes a Concordia camp t-shirt.

Overnight campers add an additional $20 per camper per night (housing only). Space is limited. On campus dining will be available for additional fee.

Late registration fee

$20/player fee if registration is postmarked after July 1.

Location and facilities

Camps are held on the campus of Concordia University, Nebraska in Seward. All participants, along with coaches and counselors, are housed in campus residence halls. Meals are served at Concordia's dining hall in the Janzow Campus Center by Chartwells Food Service.

Great players are made in the off-season

If you have the desire to make the most of your abilities, plan on attending the Bulldog Football Camps. You'll sharpen your skills and boost your confidence while you learn from experienced university and high school coaches.
