*This listing does not include all fees which may be assessed by Concordia University, Nebraska, such as course fees or books and supplies. Books may be purchased at the Concordia Bookstore or any other supplier of your choice.

Course fees – Courses with fees can be found in Banner Self Service within the Class Schedule Listing, detailed class information.

Technology/Facility Fee – This fee supports access to information technology resources as well as added use of campus facilities with extended hours to support a student life experience on campus. This fee assists the university to enhance the student’s academic experience throughout the campus.

Tuition and Fees Payment Due Date – Payment for tuition, fees, room and meals is due on the Monday of the second week of class. The amount due is calculated as the tuition, fees, room and meal charges minus authorized financial aid and loans that have been confirmed by the Financial Aid Office. SEE PAYMENT OPTIONS

Payments for Fall 2012 are due by September 2, 2013
Payments for Spring 2013 are due by January 20, 2014

Late Payment Fee – A late payment fee of $250 is assessed on accounts that are not paid by the due date of each semester.

Financial Hold - Failure to settle your account balance by the established due dates will result in a financial hold (along with a late fee) being placed on your student account. Students with a financial hold are unable to register for future courses, receive a transcript, or receive their diplomas. A financial hold will be removed once a student’s account has been paid in full or other satisfactory payment arrangements have been made.

REFUND POLICY FOR ALL TRADITIONAL UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

Withdrawing from all courses is a formal procedure that requires action from the student. The refund percent of tuition charges is determined by the day the student submits completed forms to the appropriate office. Refer to the Student Handbook for more information.
