She is a leader of both action and words which provides a great deal of stability for us as a family. As a player, she is a respected teammate for her work rate and consistency. But it is her ability to not take herself too seriously that makes her so valued by her teammates."

Personal and team growth are always first on his mind and his enthusiasm for future opportunity is contagious. Tom is also one of our most improved players in his three seasons here at Concordia. He really committed to working hard during the offseason and this fall to ensure he would be impactful in achieving our team goals."

#7 AARON SKIPWORTH

Hometown: Colorado Springs, Colo.

Position: Forward

His desire to win has made him one of the most prolific scorers in Concordia history. Skip not only provides great goal scoring ability but also has terrorized opponents through the unrelenting pressure he applies to defenders. He has forced more turnovers by our opponents than any player to wear the Concordia jersey."

#11 ERIC FOX

Hometown: Smithville, Mo.

Position: Defender

Parents: Mark and Debbie Fox

Major: Physical Science

Career Stats: 55 career starts at defender with 1 assist.

Quote from Coach Weides:

Throughout that time he has been an important part of our defensive improvement, only allowing one goal per game and 13 shutouts the past two years. Those defensive stats rank among the best in the GPAC over that span. Fox's ability to organize a defensive unit and to problem solve have played a vital role in our success. Eric has also been one of our leaders in the classroom earning a top-notch GPA."

CONCORDIA MEN'S SOCCER

Parent: Darrell and Lori Kohmetscher

Major: Exercise Science

Career Stats: 10 career starts at midfield.

Quote from Coach Weides:

"TK is a skillful attacking player that has great technical ability and vision. His composure on the ball makes him valuable in transition and his ability to find space allows us to hold possession. TK's career has also been hampered by injury, missing an equivalent of two seasons during his career, but has battled back to finish his career strong."

#23 IAN EULER

Hometown: Lincoln, Neb.

Position: Midfielder

Parents: Mike and Dina Euler

Major: Business Administration

Career Stats: 49 career starts at midfield with 8 goals and 7 assists.

Quote from Coach Weides:

"Ian is a great example of someone who has taken the opportunities given to him and never let go. He came off the bench late in the year as a freshman and really performed well. He was voted most-improved player by his teammates that year and has been a starter and impactful player ever since. Ian has proven to be a hard worker in the midfield and when in scoring positions can convert his chances. His ability to play short or quickly unbalance teams with a driven switch has made us more dynamic in the attack."

Quote from Coach Weides to his seniors:

"This senior class is a great group of young men. They have given so much to this program and have been fun to work with every day. During their careers they have all seen triumph and tribulation, and have become better men in the end. Their efforts and marks on this program have been forged into our hearts and minds and will surely be instilled in future Bulldog soccer players.

A special thanks to these seniors, the parents of our players, and Concordia staff who make our experience great. We have the best fans in the conference. GO BULLDOGS!"
