CONCORDIA HAULTS CREIGHTON U. 7-2

Concordia's baseball squad behind the sterling pitching performance of right-hander Jim Juergensen evened their season record at 6-6 with an impressive win over a strong Creighton U. nine by a 7-2 count.

Juergensen, hurling possibly his best game through his three-year college career gave up only five hits to the visiting Blue-jays. "Big J" had a shutout going for him until the eighth frame when three walks, an error and a single plated the lone Bluejay tallies.

Through the first five innings, Juergensen was right in the midst of a hurling dual with the Creighton ace, Jim Kros. Concordia finally broke the ice with a big four-run fifth for the win.

In the big fifth frame, Craig Hoffman beat out an infield hit to ruin Kros' no-hitter bid. With two out, left fielder Larry singles to right and Juergensen drove across the first run with a long single to right-center. An infield error scored another run and Mickie Reinertson, Bulldog shortstop laced a double down the rightfield line plating Juergensen and Don Thomas.

Concordia picked up single tallies in the remaining frames to pad their lead.

Juergensen was the star of the game both at the mound and at the plate. "Big J" went 2-3 and scored two runs while batting in another. On the hill, Juergensen kept the Creighton bats active, fanning 13 Bluejays, while collecting his fourth win against two defeats. Kros was tabbed with the loss, bowing defeat to a pinchhitter in the Creighton seventh.
