

April 4 – Truly? Truly.
Silent Saturday

Jesus, on days like today, this day between Good Friday and Easter, it's sometimes hard to see and believe that truly You are the Son of God. From our earthly view it doesn't necessarily look like it or feel like it. Yet, in these days you hold us steady.

It looks like nothing is happening. It looks like all hope is lost, but today is just the day of preparation. You're working behind the scenes and all of heaven is about to break loose. Prepare us today for what any of our tomorrows will bring. And prepare us for the day when we will stare at your face, like the centurion, and with 100% full confidence be able to declare, TRULY YOU ARE THE SON OF GOD.

Until then, hold us in peace.

Amen.
