DR. CYNTHIA LUMLEY

DOCTOR OF LAWS

The Concordia University, Nebraska Doctor of Laws degree is conferred upon individuals who have distinguished themselves through prolonged superior service in their field of endeavor.

Dr. Cynthia Lumley studied first year science at the University of Calgary and earned a bachelor of science degree in medical biochemistry from the University of Surrey. In addition, she has a doctorate in radiation biology from the University of London and studied at Westfield House of Theological Study in Cambridge. She received a master of arts and The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod Deaconess Certification from Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne. She is a commissioned lay counselor specializing in marriage, divorce and remarriage. She also earned a master of arts in Christianity and the arts from King's College, University of London and is working toward a doctorate in education from the University of Nottingham.

Since 2013, Lumley has served as principal of Westfield House of Theological Studies. This role includes legal duties and administrative oversight, financial management, communications and development and undergraduate teaching. She was previously associate director of deaconess studies at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne. She was also a researcher, board director and company secretary for the Centre for Medicines Research International Ltd., which was established by the Association of the British Pharmaceutical Industry (ABPI) with the goal of becoming a leading center of excellence for addressing strategic issues in the discovery, development and safe use of medicines for the benefit of society.

During her career in the pharmaceutical industry, Lumley was published extensively in scientific literature, edited numerous books and was frequently invited to present at national and international meetings. She also lectured on clinical pharmacology, pharmaceutical medicine and toxicology and presented at numerous national and international workshops and continuing education courses. She taught intensive courses to deaconess students in India, Ghana, Nicaragua, Ethiopia and Sumatra.

Lumley has contributed to various Concordia Publishing House texts and been featured in For the Life of the World, The British Lutheran, Cornerstone and other publications. She served various associations and societies that focus on toxicology, pharmaceuticals, medical research and theology. In 2000, she received the U.S. Drug Information Association Outstanding Service Award, and in 2004, she received an honorary fellowship to the British Toxicology Society, having served as the first female chairman. Over the years, she supported her church congregations as an organist, Sunday School teacher, treasurer, Vacation Bible School teacher, Bible study leader and volunteer deaconess.

Since 2019, Lumley has served as treasurer of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of England and previously served in various other roles. In Fort Wayne, she helped found The Shepherd's Hand Community Outreach Center and served as a volunteer lay counselor with Cross Connections, a Lutheran Recognized Service Organization (RSO) established to provide biblically-based counselling services. She was formerly a volunteer and member of the board of directors for Lutheran Military Veterans and Families Ministries.

Lumley currently serves as a host for a refugee family from Ukraine and is a founding member of the Benson Area Residents Association, the local residents' association for the area surrounding Westfield House.

In conferring this degree to Dr. Cynthia Lumley, Concordia University, Nebraska praises God for those who use their gifts in dedicated service in their field. We are pleased to confer upon Dr. Cynthia Lumley the Doctor of Laws degree, honoris causa.

DR. GENE EDWARD VEITH, JR.

DOCTOR OF LETTERS

The Concordia University, Nebraska Doctor of Letters degree is given to people who have distinguished themselves through creative contributions to their field.

A writer and retired literature professor, Dr. Gene Edward Veith, Jr. is the author of 29 books, including The Spirituality of the Cross: The Way of the First Evangelicals, God at Work: Your Christian Vocation in All of Life and Embracing Your Lutheran Identity.

Now retired, he serves as the director of The Cranach Institute, a research and educational arm of Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne and operates the Cranach blog on Christianity, Culture and Vocation. He is a permanent board member of the Consortium for Classical Lutheran Education and a current fellow for the Capital Research Center in Washington, D.C.

Veith has a doctorate in English from the University of Kansas, a master of arts degree in English from the University of Kansas and a bachelor of arts degree in letters with distinction from the University of Oklahoma.

Veith is provost emeritus at Patrick Henry College, where he served as professor of literature, dean of academic affairs and interim president. He worked previously as culture editor of World Magazine and as professor of English and dean of the school of arts and sciences at Concordia University Wisconsin. He was a visiting professor at Wheaton College, the Estonian Institute of Humanities, Regent College and Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. Early in his career, he was an instructor of English at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College.

Veith served as chairman of the translation committee for The Lutheran Service Book and is a past board member for Concordia Publishing House. He contributed to three foundational books used widely throughout The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod: The Lutheran Service Book, The Lutheran Study Bible and Concordia: A Reader's Edition of the Book of Concord.

In 2018, he received the Magister Magnus Award from the Consortium for Classical Lutheran Education. He has honorary doctorates from Patrick Henry College, Concordia University Irvine and Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne. Recognized with a myriad of literary and service-focused awards, he was named the Rev. Dr. Robert D. Preus Confessional Lutheran Layman of the Year in 2002, his book Postmodern Times was named one of the top 25 religious books of the year by Christianity Today in 1994, and was presented with the Ronald F. Berg Faculty Laureate Award from Concordia University Wisconsin in 1995.

Veith has authored more than 100 scholarly articles, reviews and papers, as well as various weekly journalism pieces including articles, reviews and columns. He is also a popular speaker on Christianity, culture and the arts.

He and his wife Jackquelyn are members of Village Lutheran Church in Ladue, Missouri. They have three grown children: Paul Veith, Joanna (Adam) Hensley and Mary (Ned) Moerbe and twelve grandchildren.

In conferring this degree to Dr. Gene Edward Veith, Jr., Concordia University, Nebraska praises God for those who have distinguished themselves through their creative contributions to their field. We are pleased to confer upon Dr. Gene Edward Veith, Jr. the Doctor of Letters degree, honoris causa.

JAN DOELLINGER MASTER EDUCATOR AWARD

The Master Educator Award is presented to teachers, Directors of Christian Education, school administrators or deaconesses who have distinguished themselves through prolonged superior service in Lutheran educational ministry.

Jan Doellinger '73 earned a bachelor of science in education and a Lutheran Teacher Diploma from then-named Concordia Teachers College in Seward. She also has a master of arts in administration from then-named Concordia College in River Forest, Illinois.

Doellinger currently serves as interim principal of Trinity Lutheran School in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and as The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod Iowa District East (IDE) assistant to the president. In the district role, she represents the president at all schools and preschools, serves as a resource to all schools and early childhood centers in the district, provides call lists and offers resources and support to new school starts. She also partners with others to plan and present yearly teacher's conferences, early childhood conferences, principal's conferences and board trainings.

Doellinger previously served as teacher and then principal at Central Lutheran School in Newhall, Iowa, as middle school principal at Faith Lutheran Middle School & High School in Las Vegas, as teacher, assistant principal and principal of Trinity Lutheran School in Davenport, Iowa, and as teacher at St. Paul's Lutheran School, North Tonawanda, New York.

Doellinger has given presentations and sectionals connected with Lutheran Education Association (LEA) Convocation and district teacher's conferences. She served as project manager for the LEA Lutheran Elementary Teachers Department's Beginning Teacher's Academy, has been published in the Lutheran Education Journal and has contributed a monthly article for educators in IDE's professional packet since 2016. She serves on the Iowa Lutheran Student Tuition Organization board of directors and the Iowa Alliance for Choice in Education board of directors. She has held various positions with LEA including president.

Active in her church, Doellinger has volunteered as an usher, handbell choir director, children and adult choir director and educational consultant. In addition to her current role with Iowa District East, she has served on the IDE Board of Directors, the IDE Schools Committee and the IDE Parish Education Committee. She is also ex officio of the Christ Lutheran High School board of directors.

She is married to Rev. Jerry Doellinger and has two stepchildren, Chad and Chris Doellinger, and four grandchildren. Together, Jerry and Jan started the Pastor Jerry and Jan Doellinger Endowment Fund For Student Loan Relief for workers in Iowa District East to help called workers reduce their student debt.

In recognizing Jan Doellinger as a master educator, Concordia University, Nebraska praises God for providing all who dedicate themselves to education. We are pleased to bestow upon Jan Doellinger the Master Educator Award.

MARTY KOHLWEY

CREST OF CHRIST AWARD

The Concordia University, Nebraska Crest of Christ Award honors individuals who humbly share and demonstrate the love and grace of Jesus Christ in their lives while serving public ministries and the work of the church at large.

Martin (Marty) Kohlwey CO '83 GR '98 has a master of education degree in family life education and ministry and a bachelor of science degree in theology and physical education from Concordia University, Nebraska.

Since 2016, Kohlwey has served as director of campus ministry, theology department head and worldviews/theology teacher at Lutheran High School in Parker, Colorado. He also oversees chapel, chapel groups, parent ministry, youth worship, missions and service. He is a presenter at conferences for youth and teachers speaking on topics like "Why Are You a Christian?", "Parenting Adolescents" and "Thriving Parent Ministry."

Kohlwey served at Concordia Nebraska in a variety of roles from 1998-2016 including coordinator and instructor of the university's first year experience class, instructor for methods of secondary religion and lifespan development, director of student activities and director of student life. Kohlwey also served as assistant men's and assistant women's basketball coach and head men's basketball coach. He was the faculty advisor of the Multicultural Awareness Club and led Concordia's all-campus devotions.

Kohlwey also taught a variety of other courses at the college level and has organized and led basketball mission trips to Haiti, Panama and Mexico. He also facilitated, directed and assisted basketball camps at the high school and college level for more than 25 years.

Prior to his service at the university, he served as religion department head, teacher, spiritual life director and head boys' basketball coach at Lutheran High School in Rockford, Illinois.

Kohlwey and his wife Sue '03 have three children and eight grandchildren. Stephanie (Mike GR '14) Borst attended Concordia Nebraska from 2003-2004 and graduated from Concordia Irvine in 2007. Kirsten '12 is married to Sam Huebner '11. Micah '16 is married to Taylor (Wissing) Kohlwey, who attended Concordia Nebraska from 2012-2014 and graduated from College of St. Mary in 2016.

In recognizing Marty Kohlwey with the Crest of Christ Award, Concordia University, Nebraska praises God for providing all who dedicate themselves to serving the public ministries and work of the church at large. We are pleased to bestow upon Marty Kohlwey the Crest of Christ Award.

JANICE MARION WENDORF

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The Concordia University, Nebraska Distinguished Service Award is given to individuals who have demonstrated the use of God's gifts in outstanding public service.

Janice Marion Wendorf earned a bachelor of arts in secondary physical education and English from then-named Concordia Teachers College in River Forest, Illinois. Now retired, she previously served as a high school teacher and coach at Lutheran High School South in St. Louis, Missouri, and Concordia Lutheran High School in Ft. Wayne, Indiana. She also served as a substitute teacher and coach at Central Noble Schools in Albion, Indiana, and as a conference specialist in The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod Ohio District for Concordia Publishing House.

Active throughout the church at large, Wendorf was a contributing devotional author for Hope Notes and Hope Notes Volume Two and a keynote speaker, Bible study leader, presenter and retreat leader. She has given numerous presentations and speeches as an ambassador for Lutheran World Relief and for Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML), which is now called Lutheran Women in Mission.

Wendorf previously served on the Board of Regents for Concordia University Ann Arbor, the Board of Regents for Concordia University Wisconsin, the Synod Task Force on Domestic Violence and Child Abuse and the Synod Board for Mission Services. From 2007 to 2011, she was national president of LWML. She also contributed to the organization as vice president of Christian Life from 2001-2005, and since 1983, she assisted numerous LWML committees on the local, district and national levels. She was also secretary on the board of directors of Lutheran Hour Ministries, on the board of directors of the Lutheran Deaf Mission, as an ambassador for Lutheran World Relief and on the board of directors for Lutheran Bible Translators.

Wendorf is married to Rev. Kent Wendorf, and they have three grown children: Rev. Nathan (Kristine) Wendorf, Daniel (Krista) Wendorf, Naomi (Joshua) Peterson and 12 grandchildren.

In recognizing Janice Marion Wendorf with the Distinguished Service Award, Concordia University, Nebraska praises God for providing all who dedicate themselves to public service. We are pleased to bestow upon Janice Marion Wendorf the Distinguished Service Award.
