2026 SEASON OUTLOOK

A combined record of 15-5 over the past two seasons will lead Concordia University, Nebraska Football into a 2026 season surrounded by optimism. This spring, Patrick Daberkow and his staff began to put the pieces together for what will mark the 100th season of Bulldog Football and the 10th for Daberkow as head coach. The offseason chatter from Daberkow has centered upon similar refrains: an emphasis on the trenches and on increasing strength across the board.

As a contrast to the turnover experienced in college football programs nationally, Concordia expects to return 29 of the 44 players who were listed in the final offensive/defensive two-deep roster of 2025. That number includes a group of fifth-year players headlined by quarterback Gideon Stark.

"I thought we had a very productive spring ball," Daberkow said. "We saw a lot of what we wanted to see as far as position group competition and guys stepping into different roles. It was fun to have the pads back on again and to be playing some actual football. We usually push our spring ball back as far as we can so we can get some extra time in the weight room. I don't know of a football team that doesn't need to get bigger and stronger. We really make that a big emphasis in our spring semester. We start spring ball a little bit later. It worked out for us this year. The weather was great and it was a beautiful night for our spring game."

On the night of the open spring practice (April 24), the Bulldogs hosted their junior day and welcomed more than 100 prospective student-athletes for a glimpse at the program. That outing marked the conclusion of a spring featuring the customary 15 practices.

Position-by-position glance:

Quarterback – The 6-foot-6 Magnolia, Texas, native Gideon Stark is back after taking over the starting role in 2025. Stark expects to improve his efficiency and lower his interception total while building upon his 10 starts last fall. Stark returns for his fifth year in the program after he threw for 2,339 yards and 21 touchdowns in '25. Grand Island native Camden Jensen spent last season as the No. 2 QB on the depth chart. Last year's passing attack averaged 242.1 yards per game.

Running Back – Three different players carried the ball at least 90 times last season: Carlos Collazo (102 carries for 591 yards and eight touchdowns), Calvin Sassaman (106 for 464 and three touchdowns) and Adam Van Cleave (90 for 310 and four touchdowns). Collazo was leading the NAIA in rushing yards per game at the time he went down with an injury. The Marquette, Neb., native missed spring ball due to the injury. Late in the season, the Bulldogs used the dynamic Van Cleave in the backfield in an effort to get him more touches. There is ample experience here with Tyler Douglass having also received carries.

Receiver – Now a college graduate, Adam Van Cleave returns for his fourth season inside the program. The opposition has to account for Van Cleave whether he's lined up in the backfield or in the slot. In 21 games as a Bulldog, Van Cleave has hauled in 135 receptions for 1,578 yards while scoring 17 total touchdowns. This group said goodbye to senior starter Max Bartels but brings back the likes of Jonny Puelz, and Carter Skleba. Puelz broke out last season with 519 receiving yards and a team high nine receiving touchdowns. Stark and his receivers have continued to develop a strong chemistry.

Tight End – Maddox Rickertsen took advantage of an opportunity to start at tight end last season and pulled in 19 receptions for 323 yards and three touchdowns in 2025. Rickertsen will return in 2026 as a fifth-year player along with roommates Giden Stark and Derek Campbell. Dustin Kapke spent last season as the No. 2 tight end.

Offensive Line – The offensive line has been a major reason for the offensive outburst that has taken place within the program over the past two seasons. Concordia began to replace at least three starters this spring – center Brevin Damrow, right guard Seth Moore and left guard Kadence Velde. The returning core is headlined by Second Team All-GPAC left tackle Derek Campbell and right tackle Jeremiah Vasquez. Two key players, Joshua Luehr and Thomas Thomas, spent portions of their spring throwing for the track & field team. Luehr is a strong candidate to take on the center role. The o-line surrendered only three sacks all of last season.

Coaches Patrick Daberkow and Corby Osten

Defensive line – The group is an experienced one despite the graduation of All-American Carson Fehlhafer (limited to six games last season due to injury). Terry Sebek stepped into a larger role last season and collected 11 tackles for loss. Sebek and AJ Frazey started all 10 games last season and were joined up front by Lukas Lafler and sometimes Drake Trent, a linebacker off the edge. The focus this spring has been on building greater depth in this area.

Linebacker – After racking up 104 tackles last season, Grant Huss has transitioned to a coaching staff role as a graduate assistant. There's plenty of starting experience back at the position thanks to the presence of the likes of Deegan Barnes, Dylan Meyer and Drake Trent. As a transfer from Chadron State, Meyer became a force in tallying 16.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks in his first season as a Bulldog. Meanwhile, Barnes ranked second on the team with 76 tackles last season. The group projects as a strength in 2026.

Defensive Back – There will likely be a mix of experience and returners looking to make their mark as first-year starters. In the program's 3-3-5 scheme, safety play is an important part of the unit's success. Concordia has begun to replace All-American Daylon Henson and Jaden Seier, as well as cornerback Jacob Rolan. The returning starters are safety Luke Penrod and corner Will Potratz. Tanner Frahm, Gabe Schmidt and Kaden Thompson have all seen action. The secondary will be tested in a league featuring big-time passing attacks.

Specialists – This area is in great shape with all-conference returners in kicker Peyton Atwood, punter Braxtyn Koch, long snapper Max Wurdeman and return man Adam Van Cleave. Last season, Atwood and Koch both earned an NAIA National Special Teams Player of the Week award. Atwood is the school record holder for career PATs (121) and longest field goal (50). The Bulldogs expect special teams to give them an edge this fall.

QUICK HITTERS

-2024 was his best season yet as the Bulldogs went 8-2 and concluded the year at No. 18 in the NAIA coaches' poll. Concordia was one of the last teams left out of the NAIA playoff field.

-Led the 2017, 2021 and 2025 teams to third-place finishes within the GPAC. Daberkow has coached six teams to .500 records or better.

-Coached All-Americans Darnell Woods (2013), Trey Barnes (2015, 2016), Tarence Roby (2017), Lane Napier (2018, 2019, 2020, 2021), Garrett Schardt (2021), Korrell Koehlmoos (2022), Austin Jablonski (2023, 2024), Blake Schlegel (2024), Daylon Henson (2024, 2025), Carson Fehlhafer (2025) and Adam Van Cleave (2025).

-Coordinated the 2013 and 2015 defenses to top five national finishes in terms of total defense.

-In seven years as Defensive Coordinator, Daberkow coached 29 first or second team All-GPAC defensive selections.

-Served as a team captain on the 2006 Concordia Football team.

Patrick Daberkow:

"I thought we had a very productive spring ball. We saw a lot of what we wanted to see as far as position group competition and guys stepping into different roles. Celebrating 100 seasons of Concordia Football

- 1925
First season of Concordia football, on record. Professor Walter Hellwege serves as the program's first ever head coach.
- 1931
Bernard Arkebauer scores a still-intact school record 19 touchdowns as Hellwege's team goes 7-0 and wins the Nebraska Junior College Conference title.
- 1934
The Bulldog nickname is adopted following a student body vote. The other options were Bears-Cubs, Hurricane and Whippets.
- 1941
Herb Meyer becomes the program's second head coach and enjoys plenty of success with four conference championships and back-to-back undefeated seasons in 1944 (8-0) and 1945 (6-0). Meyer coached through the 1954 season.
- 1943
No season due to World War II man power needs.
- 1955
Kenneth Schoeder leads the Bulldogs to a conference title in his first season as head coach.
- 1970
Concordia opens the season with a 35-0 win over Doane, snapping the Tigers' 38-game unbeaten streak. Head Coach John Seevers' team went on to go 8-1 overall and win the conference title.
- 1981
Coach Larry Oetting's best team put together a 9-1 record, won the NIAC championship and finished ranked No. 12 in the NAIA behind a suffocating defense that allowed only 8.8 points per game.
- 1990
Courtney Meyer returns to his alma mater as head coach following a successful tenure at Concordia Wisconsin.
- 1997
Dr. Ted Kessinger provides an evaluation of the football program, resulting in increased funding and staffing for Coach Meyer.
- 2001
Led by All-Americans Erik DeHaven, Sean Stewart and Ross Wurdeman, the Bulldogs set a still-intact school record with 10 wins while sharing the GPAC title and reaching the national quarterfinals. Concordia won a home playoff game over St. Ambrose.
- 2013
After 11 non-winning seasons in a row, Coach Vance Winter's team breaks through with a 7-4 record. It started the season at 6-0 and rose as high as No. 14 in the NAIA coaches' poll.
- 2024
Coach Daberkow's squad breaks the school record for scoring average (38.5) and goes 8-2 for the program's highest win total since 2001.
- 2026
100th season of Concordia football.
